KUMYSS.

Milk Wine.

IS GETTING TO BE THE MAIN RELIance of the physician in all cases of debility in which prompt improvement of the general tone is imperative. Kumyss is the blandest and most easily digested food, and as such the best nourishment for a weak stomach; at the same time, through the process of fermentation which Kumyss undergoes, medicinal qualities are developed which are vainly look for in materia medica. In nausea, vomiting, extreme cases of dyspepsia, Kumyss acts like a charm, promptly relieving all the distressing symptoms of such cases. When the stomach rejects all else, Kumyss is retained and assimilated, affording the patient nourishment, strength and comfort, and, as a consequence, nervousness ceases and refreshing sleep follows. In scarlet, in remittant and typhoid fever Kumyss is the best diet. It satisfies thirst and hunger and allays the fever. It is also highly recommended in consumption as tonic and restorative. But not only in extreme cases should Kumyss be resorted to; it should be the chief remedy for a weak stomach.

The dyspeptic brain worker with a few glasses of Kumyss a day will improve his digestion, and nerve force. Ladies would be less nervous, more vigorous and healthier looking, if they should add to their daily diet a few glasses of Kumyss.

OZCENA.

Ozcena is the professional or technical name given to an advanced form of catarrh in which ulceration has eaten through the membrane lining of the nose to the cartilage of the bone. Any case of catarrh may end in ozcena, but it most frequently occurs in those who are naturally scrofulous. The discharge takes place through the nostrils or through the throat, and is generally of a yellowish or greenish-yellow color, frequently tinged with blood, and almost always attended by an offensive smell. In the language of Dr. Wood, of Philadelphia, "the disease is one of the most obdurate and disagreeable which the physician has to encounter. In bad cases the breath of the patient becomes so revolting as to isolate him from society, and render him an object of dislust even to himself."

In some instance pieces of bone become separated and slough off, leaving deep, unhealthy ulcers, which secrete a blood matter, and are extremely difficult to heal.

Deafness is one of its most common consequences and results from its extension through the eustachian tube to the internal ear.

Pains in the head and over the frontal sinuses, impairing memory and even insanity frequently springs from its extension to the brain.

The greatest danger, however, because the most common, is that it will extend downward and affect the lungs. In most cases of pulmonary disease catarrh is present in some degree, and in many instances it causes a large share of the patient's discomfort.

Besides these grave consequences, all of which are liable to spring from scrofulous catarrh or ozcena, there are others which, if less dangerous, are sufficiently unpleasant. It occasions great unhappiness to thousands of both sexes, by isolating them and preventing their settlement in life. An offensive running from the nose, with foul breath, is about as great a calamity as can befall young people.

THE mugwump press throughout the country is sick and unhappy over Cleveland's appointments.

GOVERNOR HOADLY, of Ohio, calls President Cleveland "the Lord's man." It's hard accounting for such delusion, but there's no Halpin it.

THE Cleveland Voice suggests as a compromise that President Cleveland marry Miss Sweet, the Chicago pension agent. What crime has Miss Sweet been guilty of that such a punishment should be proposed?

THE doctors still insist upon the incurable nature of the disease which has attacked General Grant. But the nation hopes that the grand old hero will prove the falseness of their predictions by his perfect restoration to health, and his prolonged life for many years.

DECORATION DAY has been observed as faithfully in the Sandwich Islands as in America ever since 1878. There is a Grand Army Post in Honolulu, and there are a number of Union veterans, whose bivouac "on Fame's eternal camping grounds" was found in the Sunny Islands.

THE Hon. Chancellor Hartson, of Napa, is looked upon with favor by numerous Republican papers of the State as a suitable candidate for Governor. He is a gentleman of character and reputation, and a solid Republican. He is at present Internal Revenue Collector, but has invited Mr. Cleveland to "set his chopping-knife going" as soon as he pleases, and put a Democrat in Harlson's place.

THE second investigation of Chief of Police McCarthy is in progress. We print this morning a full report of the proceedings at yesterday's sitting of the committee. The investigation was to have been begun this morning, but the committee for some unexplained reason changed the time agreed upon, and unexpectedly began the inquisition yesterday, in the absence of accused and his counsel. The former was sick in bed, and the latter, being otherwise engaged, found it impossible to be present. The persecutors were relentless, however; and, disregarding utterly the rules of judicial proceeding and the laws of evidence, and being urged on by Mayor Spence, the committee proceeded with indecent haste to the work of trying, to make a speedy end of the selected victim. The trial was entirely ex parte, not a man being present to speak a word in defense of the accused, not a witness having been summoned to give evidence in his behalf. The proceeding is wrong—it is outrageous—and the people know it. The committee itself dare not defend its course thus far. There is such a principle as justice and fair dealing, and the men who are violating that principle in this case will gain nothing but the execrations of just men by their injustice. They may win—they may get the blood of the accused, for that is in the programme—but they will find it an expensive victory. Men cannot violate every principle of law and equity with impunity, and without having their acts laid up against them in the sleepless minds of their fellows.

There is no need—not the slightest need—for this indecent haste. The public interest does not require it, the ends of justice cannot be reached by it, no real good can be accomplished by it. If the accused were a thousand times guilty of what he is charged with—which has not been proven by a long shot—he would still be entitled to a fair trial. He would have a right to be present in person or by counsel. Neither was the case yesterday. The proceedings had under these circumstances would be thrown out of any court in Christendom as utterly null and void.

But the persecutors have set to work to do their worst, and in their present fierce and proscriptive frame of mind we have no expectation whatever that they will relent sufficiently at this stage in the inquisition to return to regular and authorized modes of investigation and grant the accused officer a fair trial.

The testimony given yesterday is chiefly unworthy of the name; it is mainly opinions, not facts—opinions, in most cases, of personal or partisan enemies of the accused—opinions biased and bitter, or trivial and childish. A keen investigator or an efficient attorney could rend it into a thousand fragments.

The committee were urged by the Mayor to finish their work last night. The scheme is plainly to get the Chief's blood before he has a chance to raise a hand in self-defense—while he is prostrated upon a sick bed.

Death of a Wisconsin Pioneer.

The death of C. W. Perry at the residence of E. F. Keysor in Vernon, is announced in another column. Mr. Perry was one of the oldest settlers in Wisconsin, where he was highly respected by all who knew him. He was the father of Mrs. E. F. Keysor of Vernon, and of Mrs. Prof. Little of Pomona. He came to California less than a year ago, hoping to get relief from what proved to be an incurable disease. The body will be embalmed and sent to Wisconsin.

The Los Angeles Steam Laundry is now owned and manged by W. D. Wilson, who has made many important improvements. The laundry is located near the corner of First and Vine streets. The washing room has a large revolving washer, capable of washing 1200 pieces in thirty minutes, and the drying apparatus is one of the finest in the State. All the other departments, including the ironing, distributing and marking rooms, are complete. The laundry keeps three wagons running constantly, and has a high reputation for fine work.

How it Looks.

From the Covina Independent.]

In this land of the Golden West, probably the time and scene most enjoyable, is when the sun sinks away in the Pacific ocean. With its going down twilight assumes that mellow golden tint, which, blended with dying daylight creates an effect nowhere else to be seen. The distant mountains slowly fade away from sight, wrapt in an ethereal blue and night closes in with a hush almost to be felt.

A BIG BLAZE.

Three of Chicago's Large Lumber Yards Destroyed.

MILLIONS OF FEET OF LUMBER BURNED

The Loss Estimated at $900,000—The Fire Under Control—Description of the Scene.

Associated Press Dispatches to The Times.

CHICAGO, May 8.—Shortly after noon today a spark from a passing locomotive engine set a fire in the heart of the great pine lumber yard district, which lies along both sides of the south branch of the Chicago river and near the southwestern city limits. Bordering on this district are the wooden-built portions of the city, known as Bridgeport and the Union Stock Yards, with its acres of wooden sheds and pens filled with cattle, hogs and sheep. A fierce wind was blowing from the West, and the flames spread with great rapidity. The entire fire department was called out and began fighting the flames, but the twenty or thirty streams of water which were thrown upon them had little or no effect as far as staying their progress was concerned. The dry pine boards and shingles were piled to a great height, with only narrow lanes between, these being used for wagons to pass through. The narrow interstices between the boards furnished unusual facilities for the progress of the flames, while they broke the force of the streams of water and prevented them from penetrating to the blazing pine in the center of the piles. The rows of fire spread rapidly to the business center and created much alarm lest the fire should assume proportions approaching those of the great conflagration of 1871, which came from the same direction. Great brands were carried forward by the wind, setting fire to new piles, and several fire steamers and the men manning them had narrow escapes from destruction. Starting up on the west side of the river, the flames ate up all the lumber between Thirty-fifth and Thirty-eighth streets, an area of about 400 by 2000 feet. It set fire to the canal boat moored at the dock, and it floated across the river, which is 180 feet wide at this point, and set fire to lumber on the east bank which covered about an equal area, and this, with one or two planing mills, was consumed. Brands were carried eastward and set fire to several small frame houses occupied by employes in the lumber district. The fire department, however, made a stand at this point, and succeeded in preventing the spread of the flames into the residence district. The fight continued throughout the afternoon, and it was nearly 7 o'clock before the conflagration was brought under control, having practically burned itself out in the limits of the immediate district in which it began. A heavy rain during most of the afternoon was of material assistance. The entire area burned is 870 by 2300 feet. The aggregate of lumber destroyed was 45,000,000 feet, valued at $960,000.

The individual losses and insurance are as follows: Chicago Lumber Company, 23,000,000 feet of lumber, valued at $400,000, insurance $300,000; Bigelow Bros., 10,000,000 feet of lumber, valued at $175,000, insurance $125,000; Adams, Hastings & Co., 5,000,000 feet of lumber, valued at $85,000, insurance $60,000; J. W. Hinckley, planing mill, loss $26,000, insurance $12,000; five cottages, aggregate loss about $10,000, insurance about $5,000.

VINDICATING THE LAW.

NEW YORK, May 8.—Harvey M. Munsell of 224 West Fifty-second street, an insurance broker and eleventh juror in the trial of Richard Short for the attempted assassination of Captain Phelan in O'Donovan Rossa's office, was arrested this afternoon by a detective from the District Attorney's office, on an order issued by Judge Van Brunt, who presided over the trial, charging Munsell with misdemeanor, perjury and contempt of court. It has been discovered by District Attorney Martine that on several days before the trial Munsell was in consultation with Short in the Tombs, and that during the recess of the court on Wednesday when the trial was pending, he visited Rossa's office and had a consultation with Patrick Joyce. Bail was fixed at $5000.

Munsell will be indicted Monday. The District Attorney had his own detectives and Pinkerton's men watching the jurors from the time they were impaneled, neither party of watchers knowing that had rivals in the case. The warden and keeper of the Tombs, as well as a prisoner whom Munsell went to see, and two tenants in Rossa's building, are the witnesses. Each set of detectives made a similar report. The District Attorney is confident he can convict Munsell. Munsell was seen in the Tombs to-night. He says he went to Rossa's office to get a better idea of the surroundings than the diagrams shown in court gave. He remained there about a minute and spoke to no one while there. He saw Short once in the Tombs, when he called on Orrin Skinner, the alleged swindler, who had obtained money from him. Skinner had promised to try and get some of Munsell's back for him, and had asked him to visit Mrs. Skinner, who was dying, in Quincy, Ill. On this occasion he did not speak to Short, and got only such a poor view of him that he did not recognize him when Short took the witness chair. Munsell claims he is opposed to the dynamite plan, but that on the evidence produced on the trial he could only conscientiously acquit the prisoner.

Floods Along the Rio Grande.

LAREDO, Texas, May 8.—Heavy rains have fallen along the Rio Grande during the past twenty-four hours. A large portion of Laredo is under water, in many places to the depth of four feet, flooding dwellings above the first floor. There are many washouts along the railroad. The tracks of the Texas and Mexican road are reported badly injured for a distance of 50 miles. The Rio Grande is rising rapidly to-night. It is feared the Mexican National railway bridge will be swept away.

Upaising in Chinese Turkestan.

LONDON, May 8.—Advices from Kashgar, Chinese Turkestan, say the Mohammedan insurgents have invoked the assistance of Russia to expel the Chinese, promising in return that Russia shall have sovereignty over Kashgar. Russia hesitates to take such a step, which would virtually proclaim hostility to China. The Chinese garrison in Kashgar have taken refuge in the large towns and ask China to send troops to their relief.

A Terrible Accident.

SAN BUENAVENTURA, May 8.—John Akers, an old resident of this county, was killed while returning to his home on the Sespe from the village of Santa Paula. By some accident he was thrown from his buggy within 300 yards of his own house. His neck was broken, the buggy was also smashed up, and the horse which he drove had one of its fore legs broken. The body and the horse and buggy were close together when first discovered yesterday by children of the deceased on their way to school.

Gen. Grant's Condition.

NEW YORK, May 8.—General Grant went to sleep between 11 and 12 o'clock last night. During the night he took nourishment twice. He slept seven hours, waking between 7 and 8 this morning. The General dressed about 9 o'clock and began arranging his notes. He will continue work on his book to-day.

Gov. Stoneman Asked to Call Out the Militia.

MARYSVILLE, May 8.—At a meeting of the Board of Supervisors of Yuba county to-day a resolution was adopted calling on the Governor of the State to furnish a sufficient force of militia to enforce the decrees of the courts against hydraulic miners who are disobeying the injunctions.

This Year's Apple Crop.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 8.—The Executive Committee of the California Fruit Growers' Association at a meeting to-day, reported the apple crop to be about one-half of that of last year. No estimate can yet be made of the grape crop.

A Backslider's Suicide.

WASHINGTON TOPICS.

Three Foreign Appointments Disposed of Yesterday.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—The President to-day appointed George V. N. Lathrop, of Michigan, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to Russia. Mr. Lathrop is sixty years of age and has been prominently identified with the legal profession. His residence is in Detroit. Shortly after Mr. Cleveland was elected to the Presidency, Mr. Lathrop with other Michigan gentlemen called on him in Buffalo. The President was greatly pleased with Mr. Lathrop and so expressed himself on his return to Albany. The appointment to Russia was unsolicited.

Mr. Lathrop, new Minister to Russia, is a graduate of Brown University. Among his classmates was Chief Justice Morton, of Massachusetts, and Chief Justice Bradley, of Rhode Island. He was graduated in law at Cambridge, James Russell Lowell, William M. Evarts, W. W. Story, Rufus King and E. Rockwood Hoar being among his classmates, and began the practice of law in Detroit in 1848, and in 1860 led the Michigan delegation for Douglas at the Charleston Convention. He has been three times Democratic nominee for United States Senator from Michigan. During the war of the rebellion he was a War Democrat, and has always been a strong supporter of Democratic principles. He is an eloquent speaker and a man of distinguished presence and pleasing manners.

Boyd Winchester, of Kentucky, was appointed Minister Resident and Consul General to Switzerland; John E. W. Thompson, of New York, Minister Resident and Consul General to Hayti. Dr. John E. W. Thompson, appointed Minister Resident and Consul General to Hayti, was born in Brooklyn. He is a graduate of the Medical Department of Yale College. After leaving Yale he pursued his medical studies in Paris, where he became proficient in the French language, which knowledge will serve him in his new sphere, as the Haytiens are a French-speaking people. Dr. Thompson is a young colored man, and was highly recommended for the position by the faculty of Yale, as well as by many leading citizens of his native State.

MINOR NOTES.

The President has declined the invitation of the Georgia delegation to visit Atlanta during the sessions of the Commercial Convention the latter part of the present month. The President's official duties will not permit him to leave.

Secretary Whitney has directed the Court of Inquiry investigating the charges of collusion between Paymaster General Smith and A. P. Brown to extend its examination and report the facts connected with any contract for the purchase of supplies for the navy made by the present Paymaster-General during his occupancy of the office.

The Robert E. Lee Camp of Confederate Veterans of Richmond, Va., to the number of 125, paid their respects to the President this afternoon. The men wore Confederate gray. "I am glad to see them," said the President.

PANAMA AFFAIRS.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—Admiral Jouett recently ordered a court of inquiry at Aspinwall to investigate the charges made against Commander Kane to the effect that he did not perform his duty at the time of the burning of that place. The finding of the court has been received at the Navy Department, and is as follows:

That the American flag was insulted as alleged by the seizure of the steamship Colon and the forcible arrest and imprisonment of a number of American citizens, including an officer of the United States Navy in uniform, and Robert K. Wright, Jr., U. S. Consul at Aspinwall, which, however, we find to have been done on the 30th day of March under forces which in our opinion were not revolutionists, but were part of an armed mob acting under orders of one Pedro Prestan, who was denounced by both the existing political parties of the State of Panama as a robber and assassin, who called himself a revolutionist to cover his base designs. The conduct of Commander Kane was in our opinion, based on the concordant testimony of all the witnesses who have been before the court, as well as those who have testified by deposition, eminently proper. He acted with judgment, with discretion, with firmness, and in accordance with his orders. Had he done otherwise than he did, there is no doubt the lives of the American citizens imprisoned by Prestan would have been sacrificed with no benefit to Americans or other foreigners, either in the saving of life or property. The burning of Aspinwall would have been followed by the murder of Prestan's prisoners, and in all probability other American citizens would have been made the victims of Prestan's malignant fury.

PANAMA (via Galveston), May 8.—Last night the second battalion of United States marines, numbering 400 officers and men, embarked on the steamer Colon for New York. Two hundred national government troops landed at Panama this morning from Buena Venturs, and more are expected to-morrow. The first battalion of United States marines are now stationed as follows: Colonel Heywood and Companies B and D at Aspinwall; part of Company E at Matachin and the remainder at San Pablo, and Companies A and C., Captains Meeker and Cochrane, remain at Panama. If the situation improves, they expect to return home this month and leave the interests of the United States to the six ships of the Pacific and North Atlantic fleet now at the Isthmus. The health of all is excellent.

A QUEEN'S DEMISE.

Queen Emma of the Sandwich Islands Dies Suddenly.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 8.—Associated Press advices from Honolulu announce the death of Queen Dowager Emma of the Sandwich Islands, on April 25th. The death of the Queen was a sudden one. The day preceding the sad event she had complained of severe headache and called in her physician, Dr. McKibbin, who had not deemed the symptoms alarming. Her headache continued until Saturday, and no fear was entertained that it would result in any way seriously. Shortly before 1 o'clock the telephone called the doctor quickly to the Queen's bedside. The doctor's fears were immediately aroused upon seeing her condition, and he sent for Doctor Trasseau. Medicine was administered and a quick improvement followed. The Queen arose and attempted to pass into another room, but at the threshold was seized with violent convulsions. She was seriously ill less than an hour, when death ensued. She was aged 49 years.

LONDON, May 8.—The race for one thousand guineas stakes, for three-year-old fillies, run to-day at Newmarket first spring meeting, was won by Duke of Westminster's chestnut filly Farewell. Jennings's chestnut filly Jane came in second and Duke Thortland's brown filly Satchel third. There were 16 starters.

A Free "Ad" for Nat Goodwin.

CHICAGO, May 8.—The publication last week in the Chicago News-Letter of a paragraph reflecting on the private life of Mr. Nat Goodwin, the actor, has been the occasion of considerable comment here. Greatly exaggerated reports of the affair were sent broadcast, in which the actor was pictured as entering the editor's office in rage, threatening to do him bodily injury, flourishing weapons, etc. In today's issue of the News-Letter Mr. Dalziel regrets that the paragraph in question should have appeared in his paper and acknowledges that since he has learned on Mr. Goodwin's authority the statements contained in the paragraph were altogether incorrect, the paper was in the wrong.

Silk Worm Eggs.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—Professor C. V. Riley, Entomologist of the Agricultural Department, has prepared a circular announcing that the Department will purchase during the summer such quantities of silk-worm eggs as may be deemed necessary for the distribution it is proposed to make for the season of 1885, and, so far as practicable, will purchase them from American producers. Eggs of improved races are preferable, and French or Italian yellow races will be bought.

France and China.

TIEN TSIN, May 8.—The French official orders, directing the opening of negotiations, are expected to reach here to-morrow. The ground for work of the plenipotentiaries has been already cleared by previous direct negotiations between France and China.

ENGLAND DEMANDS

That Russia's Acceptance of Arbitration Be Absolute.

A VOTE OF CENSURE PROPOSED.

Associated Press Dispatches to The Times.

LONDON, May 8.—The report published in the Morning Post to-day that Earl Dufferin has resigned his position as Viceroy of India in consequence of the disastrous effect upon British prestige in India of Gladstone's weak and timorous policy is denounced by government officials as utterly untrue. On the contrary, they say Earl Dufferin counsels with and approves of Gladstone's present action respecting the Russo-Afghan question.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 8.—The Moscow Gazette, with reference to the submission of the Afghan frontier difficulty to arbitration, says: "It was only possible to permit the correctness of our action to be certified by a third party. Such a course as this is not arbitration in any proper sense of the term, but simply a respectable means of terminating the incident. The Novae Vremya explains that Sir Peter Lumsden, who they say has done all the mischief, has been recalled to London.

LONDON, May 8.—A special dispatch from Calcutta to the Times says: The news of peace arrangements created dismay here, for peace so obtained is considered dangerous and humiliating. The reports which reach here from the northwest provinces and from Afghanistan agree in representing the vacillating policy of the Ministry as ruinous to British prestige.

PROPOSED VOTE OF CENSURE.

LONDON, May 8.—In the House of Commons to-day Sir Stafford Northcote gave notice that when the consolidated fund bill comes up for a second reading he would move for a fresh vote of censure. The wording of this motion will substantially be as follows:

Resolved, That the House having shown its readiness to vote supplies will refuse to assent to the vote of £11,000,000 until it has been informed of the government's present policy and of the purposes to which the money granted is to be applied.

LONDON, May 8.—The Russian Ambassador imparted to Earl Granville to-day the substance of a note from De Giers with reference to the basis of the Afghan frontier negotiations. It is reported it is not satisfactory to the British government. The differences between the two governments as to the terms upon which the question shall be referred to arbitration are becoming greater. The statement of the Official Messenger of St. Petersburg that the dispute will be submitted to arbitration only in case of necessity is semi-officially declared inaccurate. Granville, in his discussions with De Staal, holds that Russia's acceptance of arbitration must be absolute. The Conservatives will muster their full strength in Commons Monday to support Northcote's motion of censure.

LONDON, May 8.—Colonel Patrick Stewart has arrived at Herat. He had started before the summons for his return to London reached him.

RAILROAD MATTERS.

CHICAGO, May 8.—Now that the Northwestern Railway has been formally ruled out of the tripartite combination an effort is making to settle the rate of differences on western traffic. Vice-President Potter of the Burlington road has submitted a plan for the settlement of the present difference. This provides for the formation of several pools, one local for the roads west of the Missouri river, one on range cattle from Wyoming and Nebraska points to Chicago; one on competitive business in Nebraska between the Union Pacific, Burlington and Missouri River and Northwestern; one on local business from Union Pacific points coming to Omaha, and one on Omaha and Council Bluffs business proper. At their meeting to-day the managers of the western trunk lines agreed upon a system of pools substantially as given above, but when the question of mill stuffs in transit was reached they were unable to arrive at a settlement and adjourned. There is an impression in railroad circles that an adjustment of differences may be reached to-morrow and the proposed pools put into effect.

CHICAGO, May 8.—The joint agent of the eastbound pool lines received a dispatch from Commissioner Fink to-day saying that he had advices from Montreal that notice of withdrawal from the pool by the Grand Trunk had been reconsidered and that the road would continue to report business to the pool pending the meeting of the Central Traffic Committee. The managers of the roads in the Ohio river pool met to-day and decided to continue existing freight rates, and to make weekly statements of business done similar to those now made in the eastbound trunk line pools.

Biel's Rebellion.

BATTLEFORD, May 8.—General Middleton is reported to be engaging the rebels at Batouche to-day, and the impression prevails here that if the half-breeds are routed by him they will double around this way in order to effect a junction with Poundmaker. A party went to Moosomin's reserve to-day and report him gone north. If Middleton disposes of the enemy, it is thought he will march this way and, being joined by the troops here, will proceed against Poundmaker. Otherwise no aggressive movement will be made from here until reinforcements arrive. A number of Indian signal fires were seen in different parts to-day. Pickets are doubled to-night.

Indorse Cleveland.

NEW YORK, May 8.—The county Democracy held a large meeting to-night and adopted resolutions heartily indorsing the administration of Cleveland. The resolutions say: "In our judgment, subject to the provisions of existing laws, all public offices now vacant and such as may become vacant should be filled by the appointment of such Democrats as may commend themselves to the appointing power by capacity, integrity, and by the record of their services and of their faithful adherence to the principles of the Democratic party."

A Marriage Dowry for a Princess.

LONDON, May 8.—Gladstone gave notice of the proposal by the government of a marriage dowry for the Princess, who is to be wedded shortly to Prince Henry of Battenburg.

Thomas Sexten, Home Rule Member for County Sligo, asked whether the government had interfered in any way with the appointment of Kelley as American Minister to Austria. Under Secretary Fitzmaurice answered, "No."

Stabbed His Nephew.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 8.—The Chronicle's Visalia special says: Particulars have just been received of a stabbing affray which occurred on the road about thirteen miles east of this place, between James Enlow and his nephew, Wesley Dokes. Enlow accused his nephew of having told tales about him. In the altercation which followed Dokes was stabbed in the left side above the hip. The Spring comes with halting steps to the East. Ice an inch thick, with snow and frozen vegetation at some points, does not make a pleasant May picture. Such a condition of the weather will only serve to turn more eyes in the direction of California with her equable and incomparable climate, where the thermometer is on its good behavior throughout the year. Everything points to a largely increased tide of immigration to California during the present year. With the coming of another fall we may look to see an immense influx of immigration into this State. The unusual length and severity of the winter just past in the Atlantic States and the great Northwest has done a great deal to quicken inquiry in regard to California. The Exposition at New Orleans has also done a good work in advertising the possibilities of our soil and climate. People like the idea of emigrating to a land capable of such an infinite variety of productions and they will come by hundreds and by thousands into our State from all parts of the country, before the year closes. Los Angeles will get her share of this inflowing tide, and there is no danger but what she has before her a steady and healthy growth for the future.

The Outlook.

The outlook in the great grain-growing region of the San Joaquin is somewhat discouraging, according to our telegraphic advices. Yet California, as a whole, is prosperous, and the outlook for the year is as promising as that of any State in the Union. California is not now, as she was in her earlier history, limited to any one industry. The failure of any one or two of her resources does not mean now, as it did years ago, financial distress, and disaster. She can undergo misfortunes in more directions than one, and yet march steadily onward in the way of growth and advancement. It is in the solidarity of her industries that the State will find her truest interest and her greatest prosperity.

THE East is placing itself on the defensive against the cholera. Not only has there been an official meeting of the Boards of Health of the leading Atlantic ports, to devise the best precautionary measures to prevent the introduction of this dreaded scourge into the United States with the advent of the hot weather, but the general manager of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company has issued a circular to the employes of all lines of the company, giving sanitary directions to be followed during the approaching season, with a view of combatting the appearance of cholera. Disinfectants will be supplied by the company. It is wise to promptly make use of the "ounce of prevention."

THE following lines after Tennyson (about a week) are reproduced from the Boston Advertiser. The irreverent parody on the latest attempt of the English poet is quite harrowing:

THE POET—ON HIS OBVIOUS INSUFFICIENCY.

Yow! Yow! 'tis very hard to understand
This lord of England now, at all, at all,
On him will turn the wrath of every land,
If that Old-English fall

This tongue, the mightiest nasal power on earth,
This mother tongue, now comes across the sea
Poor English! What's the poet laureate worth—
Of what avail his fancy, once so free—
In such a fallen state!

Yow! Yow! had I the ordering of a fleet,
Sir Alfred's star should pay for this disgrace;
I'd cross the ocean, sixteen million feet,
And kick him from his place—
But, then, Yow! Yow! too late.

SENATOR EUSTIS, of Louisiana, in an interview expressly for publication, authorizes the statement—"You can say for me that in my opinion Mr. Cleveland has been a conspicuous and humiliating failure." Democratic organs would call this "another attempt of the Republican newspapers to cry down the President," if Mr. Eustis were not himself a Democrat of the straitest sect. They have accordingly commenced to turn loose their mud batteries on the Louisiana Senator. One of the New Orleans administration papers calls him a fool.

ONE by one the canards of the last campaign fly into the light and are exposed. One was that the Western Union Telegraph was a Blaine institution and that the Western Associated Press was controlled by it to oppose Mr. Cleveland. Cleveland has just made the son of its President, Dr. Norvin Green, Consul-General to Japan, a very important post, with judicial functions.

MANY leading Irishmen have looked cheerfully at the complications existing between England and Russia, hoping that out of the war, if it should come, may in some way spring the freedom of Ireland. Among these hopeful ones is John Boyle O'Reilly, the poet-editor of the Boston Pilot.

THE United States may perhaps have the opportunity of gleaning some ideas of value in naval architecture in case war should occur between Russia and England. New ideas will likely be developed, and the inventive skill of both nations do its utmost to make their naval power formidable and effective.

THERE is a possibility that Patti may yet aspire to authorship. It is stated that she has taken voluminous notes during her stay in this country. It is a good thing, now and then, to see ourselves through the eyes of other people.

THE Alta works itself up to the point of saying: "The cash in the Treasury at Washington has been counted and found only two cents short. We don't mind saying that this is a pretty good showing for the Republicans."

SENATOR JOHN SHERMAN.

He and a Party of Friends Visiting Los Angeles.

Senator John Sherman of Ohio arrived in this city by the Southern train yesterday. He is accompanied by Mr. Henry C. Hedges and G. F. Carpenter of Ohio, and also by his nephew, Mr. Frank A. Sherman of Des Moines, Iowa. The party are stopping at the Pico House, and intend to remain here for some days. On leaving they will proceed to Santa Barbara, where Senator Sherman desires to call on his old friend, Colonel W. W. Hollister. After that they will visit San Francisco and other points on the coast. To-day the party will visit Pasadena, and perhaps drive out to Sierra Madre Villa and call on Senator Don Cameron.

In conversation with a TIMES reporter last evening, Senator Sherman said that his visit to the coast had no political significance whatever. He and his friends left St. Louis last Monday, where they had been visiting General Sherman, for the purpose of trying a month or so of the invigorating climate of California. Senator Sherman said it was thirteen years since he had visited Los Angeles and that the change had been so great he hardly recognized any of the old landmarks. At that time it was thought that the terminus of the Southern Pacific road would be San Diego. The Senator expressed himself as well pleased with his trip so far, and desired it made public that he would be glad to meet any and all Ohioans at present sojourning or living in Los Angeles.

RELIGIOUS WORK.

Council of Congregational Churches at Railroad Chapel.

Wednesday evening of this week was an interesting occasion to the people interested in the cause of of the Master down at Railroad Chapel, near the depot. A council of Congregational churches was called by the above society to recognize and extend to them the right hand of fellowship. Quite a large number came together, and after the usual preliminaries the Lord's Supper was celebrated for the first time in this new church. Rev. Jno. T. Ford acted as moderator and Dr. B. Todd, scribe. Delegates were in attendance from a number of other Congregational churches. The officers of this church are: Rev. W. H. Ramsay, acting pastor; E. C. Niedt, G. T. Hanly, deacons; J. H. Stevens, clerk. Trustees: Dr. B. Todd, Peter Corson, G. T. Hanly; the latter is also treasurer. The society begins with a membership of 16, with very flattering prospects for other additions at an early day. The Sabbath school connected with the work has an attendance of nearly 150, with a membership of over 200.

Next Sunday being children's day in the Congregational churches, the above Sabbath School expects to make the most of the occasion. The pastor will preach a sermon in the forenoon for the children, and in the evening a varied programme will be presented, consisting of short addresses, recitations, singing, etc. A very good time is expected. All are invited to be present. The Sabbath School from which this church came was begun nearly two years since with only seventeen members. It holds its regular sessions at half past 3 o'clock every Sabbath and teacher's meetings Wednesday evening at the close of the regular prayer meeting, beginning at 8.15 o'clock. A very cordial invitation is extended to all persons in the neighborhood of the depot to attend the above meetings. Seats free. No morning collection.

Accident on the Pasadena Road.

J. A. Blumve, who is an employe in the house of W. C. Furrey, had an experience night before last on the Pasadena road which nearly cost him his life. It was late, and he was descending the steep grade which winds around the hill north of Highland Park, when suddenly an immense wild-cat sprang down from a tree to the road, frightening his horse so badly that the animal started back and rolled over the precipice with the wagon, falling some fifty or sixty feet. Mr. Blumve fortunately jumped out in time to save himself and reached the house of Mr. A. W. Potts, where he remained for the night. The wagon was badly smashed up, but the horse, strange to say, escaped without serious injury. The grades on some of the hills between this city and Pasadena are very bad and should be put in better order. The Arroyo is infested with wild-cats, who come down at night and raid the chicken-houses in the neighborhood, but otherwise do little damage.

Card of Thanks, Etc.

The Ladies' Benevolent Society feel very grateful to the generous public who so kindly responded to their appeal, as their late ball was a grand success in every sense of the word.

The receipts were as follows: Sale of tickets and donations amounted to $1032; expenses $256, leaving a net balance of $776, which will greatly help to replenish the funds of the society. The ladies wish to extend their heartfelt thanks to Mr. O. W. Childs for the use of the Opera House; to the following gentlemen for their donations: Mr. Simpkins, Stern, Cahn & Loeb of the City of Paris, Mr. B. F. Coulter; also to the TIMES and Herald, to Dr. W. L. Wills for his valuable assistance. At the meeting Friday afternoon a resolution was made that a grand charity ball be given annually.

The whole of the lots are covered with the choicest varieties of orange trees, ten to twelve years old. Too much cannot be said in their praise.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.

FRIDAY, May 8.

The Board met pursuant to adjournment. Present, full Board and Clerk.

Supervisor Foord moved that all necessary night work performed by deputies in the Assessor's office be paid for at the same rate per hour as is now paid for day work. Passed, Supervisor Lindley voting no.

In the matter of the Highland School District: Time for hearing and action on said petition fixed for Saturday, May 9, at 1:30 p. m.

Several demands on the treasury were audited.

In re County Board of Education: Communication from County Board of Education received asking the appointment of Prof. L. D. Smith or Prof. Ira More as a member of said County Board. Action deferred until meeting in June.

The following is the communication referred to above.

To the Honorable Board of Supervisors of the County of Los Angeles—GENTLEMEN: The undersigned members of the Board of Education of the city of Los Angeles desire to present for your consideration the following matters:

Under a recent ruling of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, the City Board no longer has any control of the examination of teachers, as the Superintendent holds that one of the recent amendments to the Constitution gives the entire control of such matters to the County Board. We therefore feel that the city should be represented upon the County Board by a man well acquainted with city schools, and would suggest to you the name of Prof. L. D. Smith for the reason following: He is at present City Superintendent of Schools, and is filling the position in a highly satisfactory manner. He has a thorough acquaintance with the condition of the city schools and with the teachers employed therein. He is energetic and capable, and will, if appointed, make a first-class member.

Prof. Smith is, however, Democratic in his political predilections, although not an active partisan. We have been advised that your honorable body desires to appoint a Republican from the city. If you feel unwilling to overlook political considerations, we desire to submit to you the name of Prof. Ira Moore, principal of the branch Normal School, a sound Republican, a prominent educator, and a gentleman well qualified to fill the position.

The petition was signed by every member of the Board of Education.

The Board then adjourned until 10 a. m. to-morrow.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

Stocks and Bonds.

By Telegraph to The Times.

NEW YORK, May 8.—Government bonds dull and steady, without any change except a decline of ¼ in fours and an advance of ½ in threes.

Stocks were decidedly more active today, and while somewhat irregular and at times feverish, they exhibited a great deal of strength, the result of the day's operations showing decided gains over last evening. The prominent feature of early dealings was strength developed in Grangers, accompanied by the statement that buying orders emanated principally from Chicago, and this was interpreted as indicating that railroad troubles were on the eve of settlement, and at the same time Vanderbilts were weak and both New York Central and Lake Shore declined, while the remainder of the list advanced. The activity during the first hour was so great that trading amounted to over 120,000 shares, or more than has been traded in for the same hour at any time in the past month. After 11 o'clock the market became more quiet and prices were comparatively steady with a tendency toward lower prices. But after 1 o'clock there was a sharp rally, after which it again became dull and about steady, and so continued until late in the day. In the last half hour the whole list became strong and advanced 1 to 2½ per ct. for active stocks, the market finally closing strong at or near the highest quotations reached. The only active Gould stock was Union Pacific, which rose from 48¾ to 49¾, a gain of 1⅞ per cent.

"Tea buyers may always safely assume that any Tea with a pale green color is an adulterated, or 'faced' tea, as it is known to the trade."—New York Times, Aug 23d, 1883.

STILL it will not do to assume that, because a tea is uncolored, it must be good; as the fact is that the uncolored teas imported to this country, whether in paper packages or loose in chests, have no adequate protection against deterioration.

The reason that

EOLA TEA

Unlike other uncolored teas, is a marvel of fragrance and nerve-stimulating virtue, is because it is imported in the only package calculated to protect uncolored teas against deterioration, namely, the

Perfection Tea Can

That this universally accredited package of the Japan Tea Syndicate has sustained its high reputation in the case of

"A flavor and aroma rarely equalled."—N. Y. News.

Of the superiority of the new process to the old-fashioned hand twisting and rolling over charcoal fires, the following authority speaks:

Corroboratory of the merits of the Package:

They act as a mild cathartic, and are useful in regulating the bowels, for costiveness, indigestion, sour stomach, weak stomach. The symptoms of stomach worms are: Foul tongue, eyes heavy and expressionless, dry, hacking cough, sallow complexion, dark and blue circles around the eyes, foul and disagreeable breath, constant picking of the nose, grinding of the teeth, and starting up with terror and fright during sleep, at times very feverish accompanied with great thirst, the cheeks flushed and then again as pale as death and white around the mouth, the belly hard and swollen, short, cramping pains in the stomach. These worms sometimes shoot up in the throat, causing death by strangulation. The symptoms of Ascarides generally called seat, or pin worms, are noticed by an itching sensation of the lower end of the bowels or rectum. There are other kinds of worms that inhabit the human system, but their symptoms are similar to those above mentioned. Persons can be sure when their children have the above symptoms that they are troubled with worms, and that KELLOGG'S WORM WAFERS will expel them in all cases. A ONE-SIDED AFFAIR.

AS TO HIS ALLEGED INCOMPETENCY.

The committee to investigate the Chief of Police on a charge of incompetency (published in report of last Council meeting) assembled in the Council chamber at 2 p. m. yesterday. Chief McCarthy was at home, sick in bed, and unable to be present, as declared by a certificate from Dr. J. S. Baker, health officer. Stephen M. White, Mr. McCarthy's attorney, sent a letter stating that as Messrs. Bullis and Santee had told him the meeting would be at 7 this morning he had made engagements for yesterday afternoon, and could not be at the meeting; that as the prosecution was represented by counsel, the defense should be, and asked postponement to any early morning or late afternoon hour next week.

Mr. Bullis urged that it was unfair to proceed when the Chief could not be represented; but Messrs. Santee and Holbrook thought the examination should go on at once. Partially to equalize the thing they agreed to bar out Horace Bell, attorney for Gowan.

Committee was called to order at 2:35, Mr. Bullis in the chair.

Mr. Bullis said: "Witnesses will give their testimony and be questioned only by us. If outsiders wish to ask questions they must do so in writing. I feel delicate about commencing with out the defendant here; I feel it shouldn't be done. But we will shut out all others, and recognize no prosecution nor defense, but simply a private examination."

Despite the professed intent to be fair, the meeting looked lop-sided, in the whole day's proceedings, there was not a question put in favor of the Chief. Horace Bell, Biscailuz, Dr. French, R. A. Ling, Officers Horner, Fred. Smith and others, sat as practical cross-examiners for the prosecution, and handed in whatever questions occurred to them. No witness favorable to the Chief was called. Mr. Bullis, however, brought out some points by a very few pertinent questions. At the end of the afternoon session he said, "I do not feel right in going on without the Chief having representation here. It is not fair, and should not be done." Following is the evidence:

Officer Fonck sworn: The Chief has given me undue orders. Some I executed, some not. About the middle of January a Mr. Holman died suddenly on Fifth street. I was a neighbor. I was at supper when Mr. H.'s house keeper summoned me, and I found the man dead. His cramped position indicated poison. Sent Officer Davis to tell Chief, who came directly with Mr. Brown. I told the Chief of the suspicious circumstances related to me by the housekeeper, and I think he believed there was something suspicious. He ordered me to stay there and watch things. After the Coroner had taken the body the Chief sent me word to go home. Then sent for me to search the house. The son ordered me to search a trunk there, but I told him no matter what the Chief said, I knew my duty; then at the housekeeper's request I searched it. Was on duty there till midnight, and then was reprimanded for reporting at office a few minutes late, and the Chief said he never ordered me to stay at the house. Then next morning he wouldn't have me as witness before coroner's jury. Was on duty eighteen hours that night. Can't say I ever heard Chief use bad language toward any officer; but have heard him use vulgar language, though not toward officers. He's my sixth chief here, and no other ever treated me as he has—unfairly, as letting me serve eighteen hours in one night. He wouldn't let me go to the K. of P. ball. Was first appointed on the police force here in 76. Think McCarthy the poorest chief I ever had in point of ability. Don't think he is competent. About January 14 Justice Austin lost three sacks of walnuts. Chief was in San Francisco, and Captain Gowan sent me to investigate. Found clues so I could have arrested thief in two or three days. Chief came back and wouldn't let me go after the thief in citizen's clothes or off my beat. It is true the Chief ordered me in presence of whole watch to blow whistle in front of Mr. Sinsabaugh's house every night and be back in two hours. Got far as Adams street and found one hour up, and came back. He said all right, go as far as I could and blow whistle through Fifth Ward, and I've done so every night. Also ordered me to attend meeting at University Church, outside city limits, every Sunday night, to keep order, and see Mr. Sinsabaugh home after meeting. Officers Jackson and Fitch have also been sent on same errand.

Mr. Bullis asked if the blowing of a whistle wasn't to reassure the inhabitants of the Fifth Ward.

Mr. Fonck said he didn't know the object, had never been told. Has been some highway robbery in that vicinity. I think Chief has not always used me and others right. I've been on night watch five weeks steady. Last night Chief changed watches as is usually done every fortnight, but kept me on night watch. The evening after the Porcupine came out, stating that I found an officer asleep in the TIMES office, the Chief asked why I reported the matter to the Porcupine and not to him. I told him I didn't report it to the Porcupine or any other paper.

Dr. French sworn. Don't know save by hearing that Chief went to San Francisco. We had a meeting up in my office one evening, and he was watching us from across the street with Stoermer and his son. He was there when we came out about 9 o'clock.

Mr. Bullis—"Is that positive evidence that he was there to watch you?"

Dr. French—"I don't know any other reason why he should be there. As to his incompetency, I know nothing except his general reputation."

Mr. Bullis—"I'd much rather you would."

Mr. Morgan—As to a personal affair of mine in the police office. Some time ago John Tait came to me to defend some arrested gamblers. I went and found Chief in his office and asked him what the charges were. He refused to answer, and finally ordered me out. Came back with Tait to see whether arrests was made under State law or ordinance. Tait and Stoermer—Chief being out—went into Chief's office and handled gamblers' tools. Chief came in and ordered me out. I went outside railing and refused to go further, whereupon he threatened to put me out, and used excited language.

Question by Gowan—"Do you consider him insane?"

Mr. Bullis—"The Chief is not on trial for insanity."

Mr. Morgan—I do not think the Chief competent for his office. Might succeed at something else. Arrests were made illegally on Los Angeles street, and prisoners were refused bail. They were properly dismissed by the Mayor next morning on my representation. I consider Mr. McCarthy's treatment of me at his office ungentlemanly. Every attorney in the city has to go to the police office for information, and it is the Chief's business to give it. Chief afterward apologized for treating me so.

Officer Horner sworn—When we were all sworn in, the Chief said we'll have soft hats, and we bought them. Two or three weeks later the Chief came in with stiff hats at $5 each, which could be had at every hat store in the city for $3, and we bought them of him. As to the badge, we intended to have it presented to the Captain, by the Captain to Council, and to be held by the different Chiefs from year to year, so as to save buying a badge for every Chief. Judge Clark, living near the city limits, lost a plow and cultivator, and wished me to find the thieves. The Chief sent me to Sheriff Gard about it, as too near outside the city limits, and wouldn't let me hunt it. Some of the men asked me to speak to the Chief about the bad arrangement of the watches, which kept us half an hour late. The Chief said, "I don't want to talk with you. If you don't want to do your duty throw down your star." I called his attention to the eight-hour ordinance, but he wouldn't talk to me. I have served under three chiefs, and it has always been customary to change the men to different watches every fifteen days. I have served six weeks on watch No. 1. As to that badge, Gomez was first elected to give the badge to McCarthy, but we changed our minds. The Chief knew what disposition we meant to make of the badge. I was three days watching one prostitute's house, and no one had my beat meantime. The force is not distributed right, and only small parts of the city are guarded. Most of the police guard the office. The Chief hasn't the respect of his officers, and isn't competent. He has favorites who can do as they please, while the rest of us can't. He has only learned within a little while to call the roll. Should think his general conduct has demoralized the force. City would be better guarded if we had a good Chief. The Chief sends one particular man to places of amusement, and won't let anyone else go. Has never used discourteous language to me.

Fred C. Smith sworn: The Chief is incompetent. He went to San Francisco, taking a prisoner. Don't know if he got telegram from San Francisco as to prisoner.

Mr. Bullis said a telegram was in evidence, asking that great care be taken with that prisoner, as a dangerous man, and that the Chief had gone himself rather than trust any of his officers.

Mr. Smith—"When we were asked to contribute $5 each for badge some held back. In a couple of weeks some got to disliking Chief, and six or eight of us notified Keary to hand the badge over to the Captain. Keary went and presented it to the Chief. I refused to shake hands with Chief on it, and told him I didn't give it to him, and wanted my $5 back. Chief or Keary must have had to pay $65 or $70 balance on badge. We finally had Stoermer present the badge to the Chief, just to get rid of it, though we didn't think anything of the Chief. I think the Chief incompetent. He resisted Charles Cruz, who had a warrant, and asked officers to help him. Keary and Fletcher would have helped the Chief. I would have helped Cruz take him and lock him up, and I told Cruz I'd stay with him. Chief also refused to let me go off my beat to catch a thief, for whom I had a warrant. Judge Morgan didn't handle the gamblers' tools, as the Chief charges. Chief used very insulting language to Morgan. Chief threatened to suspend Weatherman because of friendship to the Porcupine, and wanted to get rid of me. Ed. McCarthy, Jr., is an eavesdropper and spy. Has followed me and Horner home, hiding in doorways, to spot us. Keary, the Chief, Fletcher and Eddie have all spied on me. Don't think anything of the Chief. Spoke to him the other evening for the first time in three months. He then ordered me to remove a troublesome woman from a room in the Southern Hotel, and I told him it wasn't my duty as an officer, which he later admitted. Cruz, who had a warrant, and asked officers to help him. Keary and Fletcher would have helped Cruz take him and lock him up, and I told Cruz I'd stay with him. Chief also refused to let me go off my beat to catch a thief, for whom I had a warrant. Judge Morgan didn't handle the gamblers' tools, as the Chief charges. Chief used very insulting language to Morgan. Chief threatened to suspend Weatherman because of friendship to the Porcupine, and wanted to get rid of me. Ed. McCarthy, Jr., is an eavesdropper and spy. Has followed me and Horner home, hiding in doorways, to spot us. Keary, the Chief, Fletcher and Eddie have all spied on me. Don't think anything of the Chief. Spoke to him the other evening for the first time in three months.
